3. THE DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF BBBA BOARD MEMBERS

The Board as a whole is collectively responsible for the success of the organisation.

The Board: All Directors must act in the way they consider, in good faith, will be most likely to promote the success of the organisation for the benefit of its members as a whole. In doing so, a Director must have regard (among other matters) to:

- The likely consequences of any decision in the long term;
- The interests of the organisation's employees and members;
- The need to foster the organisation's relationships with its stakeholder community and its business relationships with suppliers, customers, and others;
- The impact of the organisation's operations on the community and the environment;
- The desirability of the organisation in maintaining a reputation for high standards of business conduct;
- The need to act fairly as between the members of the organisation
4. LEGAL DUTIES OF BBBA BOARD MEMBERS

Board members should meet certain standards of conduct and attention to his or her responsibilities to the organisation. These may be referred to as:

- Duty of Care,
- Duty of Loyalty, and
- Duty of Transparency

Duty of Care

Board members must exercise due care in all dealings with the organisation and its interest. This includes careful oversight of financial matters and reading of minutes, attention to issues that are of concern to the organisation and raising questions whenever there is something that seems unclear or questionable. The board must also ensure that the organisation functions within the law, both the “law of the land” and its own statutes and other policies.

Duty of Loyalty

Conflicts of interest, including the appearance of conflict of interest, must be avoided. This includes personal conflicts of interest or conflicts with other organizations with which a board member is connected.

Duty of Transparency

Board Members have an obligation to ensure that the organisation is appropriately transparent in all its operations.
5. THE ROLE OF A BBBA BOARD MEMBER

As a member of the BBBA Board of Directors, you serve as a non-executive director of the organisation. As well as the general responsibilities of directors, this document offers guidance on the specific role BBBA Board members are expected to perform.
